Second group of teens arrested in two days for multiple vehicle burglaries

Sheriff Champagne is pleased to announce that additional arrests were made yesterday for a number of east bank car burglaries. These arrests are in addition to multiple arrests reported yesterday for unrelated burglaries. Through a tip, the below listed individuals were identified as suspects in a series of car burglaries that occurred in the Destrehan area between June 13-19, 2011. Following an investigation, the suspects were arrested on the listed charges.

In each of these series of crimes, most of the vehicles were left unsecured with valuables inside. Sheriff Champagne reminds residents to secure their vehicles, do not leave valuables in sight, and park in well lighted areas.
