Armed Robbery in Luling

Sunday night at approximately 10:30 PM the Sheriff's Office responded to an Armed Robbery call. Three boys (ages 18 yrs. & two 16 yrs.) were catching frogs in a small boat in the canal at the end of Kellog Street near the Mimosa Swim Club. They reported that they were called over to the bank by 5 or 6 individuals who claimed to be Wildlife Agents. When they approached the bank, one of the men displayed a shotgun and demanded everything they had in their boat. The victims handed over two frogs that they caught at which time the perpetrators fled the scene.

The suspects are described as being in their mid to late 20's with five being white males and one possibly an African American male.

Anyone having any information regarding this case is asked to contact Detective Joseph Lemoine at 985-783-1135 or 985-783-6807.
