Unidentified Motorist Jumps off Hale Boggs Bridge

On July 16, 2013 at 11:02 a.m., the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office received a call from a passing motorist who observed a white Ford Explorer pull off the roadway abruptly on-top of the Luling bridge traveling southbound and witnessed the driver of the Ford Explorer immediately exit the vehicle. According to the witness, the driver then quickly ran around the front of the vehicle and dove over the railing without hesitation. The motorist described the jumper as a white male wearing a white shirt and dark colored pants. The U.S. Coast Guard was notified and the search is underway.

The St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office Detectives are currently investigating this incident.
