Sheriff Greg Champagne reports that the St. Charles Sheriff's Office has completed an internal investigation regarding the escape of Charles Conrad from the St. Charles Parish Corrections Center on July 2, 2013. One deputy resigned under investigation and a second deputy was terminated for violation of department policies and procedures related to both this incident as well as other job performance related matters.

Since this involves personnel matters and security procedures, we do not have any additional information to release pertaining to this matter.
