DESTREHAN TEACHER RELEASED ON BOND

Shelley Dufresne, who was charged with Carnal Knowledge of a Juvenile, was released this evening on a $200,000 bond set by Judge Lauren Lemmon.

Dufresne was released with the conditions of posting a $10,000 cash bond and a personal surety bond for the remainder of the balance. Special conditions of Dufresne's release include: Dufresne has been placed on house arrest. She is not allowed to leave the residence except for continued intensive mental health treatment, doctors' appointments, and church. Dufresne must provide the court with proof of continued treatment. Failure to comply will result in Dufresne reporting back to Jail.
