SUSPECT ARRESTED AFTER THREATENING POLICE OFFICERS ON SOCIAL MEDIA

On Monday, members of the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office began investigating a post on social media threatening police officers. The post stated, "In uh lil while cops in St. Charles are goin to be next. I hope they kill every last 1 of them dirty bitchez." In light of the recent events in Dallas and Baton Rouge this threat was considered to be serious and dangerous.

"The Right to Free speech comes with certain responsibilities. Making threats in this volatile environment incites danger for law enforcement and the public," said Sheriff Greg Champagne.

The St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office along with the assistance of the St. John Parish Sheriff's Office arrested: Victor Pablo, Male of 253 Amp Circle in Edgard, Louisiana. Pablo is being charged with Terrorizing and Threatening a Public Official. He was booked at the St. John Sheriff's Office Correctional Center as a Fugitive and later transported to the St. Charles Parish Nelson Coleman Correctional Center. A search warrant was also executed at Pablo's residence where multiple weapons were recovered. Pablo is being held on a $25,000 bond set by Judge Lemmon.
