Sheriff Greg Champagne reports shortly after 3:10 pm deputies responded to a call related to a female standing on the railing at the top of the Hale Boggs Bridge. Deputies arrived on scene to find an unoccupied vehicle parked on the bridge and observed a female located in the river, swimming. Tug boats in the area were able to retrieve the female who was transported by Air Care to a local area hospital. The victim, a resident of Destrehan, sustained injuries related to the fall into the river but we do not know to what extent. The incident is still under investigation.
