Sheriff Greg Champagne reports that in April of 2018 an investigation was opened in relation to a theft of funds from a banking account associated with the "Local 709 Union", a union group based at the Waterford III Site. During the investigation, it was learned that a past Treasurer for the union wrote two checks without the required two signature authorization. The amount of money taken totaled approximately $2,575.00. It was also learned that Roy had a laptop computer that belonged to the union that was not returned upon his resignation.
