Update on shooting in Killona

On November 9, 2021 just before 6:30 PM the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office responded to a shooting that occurred in Killona, LA.

During the investigation, detectives learned that several people, including the victims were outside of a grocery store in the 100 block of Killona Dr. in Killona, Louisiana when the shooting took place. An unknown number of suspects snuck up from behind the store and opened fire on the group in an ambush style attack.

Responding officers located Darzil Washington, a 29-year-old, who was shot multiple times causing him to succumb to his injuries. Darville Washington, a 32-year-old, was shot multiple times and was airlifted to University Medical Center where he is currently listed in critical, but stable condition. Dwayne Williams, a 27-year-old was shot multiple times. He also was airlifted to UMC for medical treatment where he is listed in critical condition. Jayvon Lockett, a 35-year-old was shot multiple times, initially drove himself to a local area hospital, but was later transferred to UMC where he is listed in stable condition. Officers also located a 14-year-old juvenile, who was shot multiple times. He was transported to Children's Hospital where he is listed in stable condition.

All of the victims have ties to the Killona area.

Anyone with information about the incident is urged to contact Detective Amanda Buchanan with the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office at (985) 783-6807 or CrimeStoppers at (504) 822-1111.
