Sheriff Greg Champagne reports that officers were called to Brown's residence after hearing of shots fired at the residence. Officers located Brown who had allegedly fired shots after being angry. No one was injured during this incident. Brown was also wanted on two warrants that were issued in August of 2009 and June of 2010 for the above charges. In August of 2009, Brown allegedly broke a window on his live-in girlfriend's vehicle. Brown then forced the victim into the vehicle where he struck her several times in the face. Brown drove the victim for approximately 3 hours before bringing her home. Brown then ordered the victim to take a shower at which time he fled the residence in the victim's vehicle. Brown was arrested and booked accordingly.
