Sheriff Greg Champagne reports John White had warrants issued for his arrest in relation to an incident which occurred on March 6, 2017 where two victims arrived at White's residence to visit a friend. While at the residence, White allegedly struck the victims and threatened to harm them if they attempted to leave. The victims claimed that during one attempt to leave, White physically stopped them and produced a handgun. The victims advised that the Sheriff's Office was called and White fled from the residence prior to deputies arriving on scene.
On March 9 th , while attempting to arrest White at his residence, White fled into the residence and away from deputies. Deputies located and apprehended White inside of his bedroom, and he was arrested accordingly.
