Public Information
September 23, 2019

Shortly after 4:00 a.m. on September 22, 2019, deputies of the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office responded to a complaint related to two suspicious subjects observed entering a vehicle in the 100 block of Oak Manor Lane in St. Rose, LA. The reporting person stated that a third subject had walked across the street to the neighboring residence.

Deputies arrived on scene a short time later, but were unable to locate the subjects.

During the investigation, it was determined that at least two vehicles in the area had been burglarized.

Citizens in the area that have home security cameras are urged to review their video footage to see if the cameras may have captured footage of the incident.

If anyone has information related to the incident they are urged to contact Detective S. Mahan of the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office at (985)783-1135.

As always, citizens are reminded to remove valuables from inside of their vehicle and lock their car doors.
