ST. CHARLES PARISH SHERIFF'S OFFICE SUPERVISOR INVOLVED IN SINGLE-VEHICLE ACCIDENT

A St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office supervisor, assigned to the Nelson Coleman Correctional Center, was involved in a single-vehicle accident in St. John Parish on the evening of Saturday, October 28, 2023, around 6:45 P.M.

The supervisor had just gotten off shift at the jail and was in uniform driving his marked Sheriff's Office unit home. The officer lost control of the vehicle before it left the roadway, flipped, and caught on fire.

The officer sustained minor injuries and was released from an area hospital. He is recovering at home.

Louisiana State Police is handling the accident.

Sheriff Champagne said, "I am thankful our officer received help quickly from the St. John Parish Sheriff's Office and will be alright."
